Treasurer's Report -Debbie Hochman

The homecoming float was successful and had a minimal cost for the candy given out ($25.32) Business cards were purchased at staples to give out during the homecoming parade. The balance on the account is $10,307.52

5 Drama Guild Sponsor-Jen Haberberger

There has not been a rehearsal that all of the kids were present to see the actual length of the show.

The kids need to be prepared. Some of the kids still don't know their lines and the dances.

Parents need to reaffirm with the kids that they need to know their lines and the dances. The play is only 12 days away.

The show will be ran with full makeup, hair and costumes on Monday Nov 6th and Thursday, Nov 9th.

6 Committee Reports:

a) Costumes- Tammy Morante

The costume parade was held tonight at 5pm. There are a few minor adjustments that need to be made to the costumes before they are chalked and paint splattered them to make them look dirty. The costume room will need help this week to chalk and paint splatter the costumes. They are asking for assistance from volunteers.

They also need volunteers to man the costume room during all of the shows. Please consider volunteering.

Amy Winchell will head up the costume room for the spring play.

b) Sets-Mike Haas

The sets for animal farm are finished. They are asking for help tearing down the set on Monday October 13th at 6:00pm.

This is the last play that Mike Hass will be in charge of sets. He has been building sets for the drama guild for a long time and will be missed. Thanks Mike for all of your hard work. Greg Johnson will be taking over the sets committee for the Spring Play.

c)Painting-Tatum Petrillo

The painting of the set is completed for Animal Farm. Tatum Petrillo will not be able to be the set painter for the spring play. We will need to find a new set painter to head up this committee for the spring play. If anyone is interested, please let Mrs. Haberberger know. This is a PT school district job.

Props-Janet Johnston

The props are completed for Animal Farm and look great. The kids that helped with props will also be assisting with crafts for the gift table.

e) Hair/Make Up-Janine Hribal

The tutorials for both makeup and hair for the play are almost completed. The last tutorial will be on Wednesday night, November 1st.

The show will be ran with full makeup, hair and costumes on Monday October 6th and Thursday, October 9th.

The call times for the paly will be at 11 am on both Saturday, October 11th and Sunday, October 12th.

Jeanine is asking for 1 volunteer to man the costume room for every show.

Publicity-Amy Lanzelotti

Business cards were made for homecoming to be handed out. There are additional cards left. Please take some to put as an advertisement in local businesses.

The signs have been put up throughout the township and surrounding areas and the banners have been given to the township to put up.

Please put messages on Facebook to all of your friends to come to the fall play.

Please patronize Black Sheep Grill since they are passing out advertisements for the fall play to their customers.

g) Water/Cookie Table- Amy Pleins

Amy Pleins is heading up the cookie table. We ordered the cookies from Jadens for 25 cents apiece and selling them for 50 cents apiece.

50/50 Raffle- Gary & Amy Frelino

Gary & Amy Frelino will head selling tickets for the 50/50 raffle. They will need to purchase another roll of tickets.

Chaperones/Security- Tamara Patula

Tamara was not at the meeting so Debbie Barber will email her.

We will need 2 people per show. One in the back of the auditorium to make sure that no one is taking pictures and a second person the watch the area leading into backstage area.

j) Backstage Water-Tammy Morante

We will purchase animal crackers and water to have backstage for the kids for all 3 shows.

Gift Table-

Since there is no chairperson for the gift table, the drama guild officers have been making crafts and food items for it. The cake pops have been ordered. The kids from the prop room will help with crafts. Darla Cynkar is doing the picture frames.

Ushers- Shari Vislosky

Shari did not attend the meeting so Debbie Barber will touch base with her concerning the ushers. CAP usually supply the ushers.

Tickets- Tickets will be sold by Ashley and Karie at the door.

6 Clearances- Clearances are required for any adult working with kids for the fall play.

7 New Business

T-shirts will be passed out Saturday, November 4th during practice.

New York Trip – All of the kids received a paper on it during rehearsal. It is June 1-3, 2018.

They are going to see Waitress and Sponge Bob Square Pants the musical.

They need 50 people to fill the bus.

Spring Musical – The announcement will be on November 24th. There will be a musical workshop on November 28th for all kids interested in trying out for the musical. Tryouts will be December 5 & 6 with call backs on December 7th.
